

Chapter 6 Grammar Practice

1. debeo means: _____

2. What is the second principle part, or infinitive, of debeo?

3. celeriter means: _____

4. diligenter means: _____

5. prope means: _____

6. ianua means: _____

7. iterum means: _____

8. meus, -a -um means: _____

9. tuus -a -um means: _____

10. The second principle part, or infinitive, of doceo is:

Class work

11. nec/neque.... nec/neque means:

12. The second principle part, or infinitive, of iubeo is:

13. eo means: _____

14. ego means: _____

15. me means: _____

16. constituere means: _____

17. What does littera mean? _____

18. What does exire mean? _____

19. What does magister mean? _____

20. ceteri, ceterae, cetera means:

21. What is the second principle part, or infinitive of dimitto?

Class work

22. What does ludere mean? _____

23. What does scribere mean? _____

24. What does cupere mean? _____

Translate into Latin

25. Quintus walks slowly to school.

26. At last the boys work hard.

27. We want to play in the road.

28. Argus wants to sit in the garden.

29. Flaccus decides to sleep for a long time.

30. The teacher ought to teach the boys and girls.